Spectrum Volume - II

August - November 2012-2013

"Gratitude is the attitude that takes you to your altitude"

In continuation with our efforts to add value to the functioning of the school, we introduce yet another issue of spectrum, with a view to display all activities, competitions, events, programmes, ceremonies and functions and tried to tap the creative talents of our students. We feel extremely delighted to share with you the budding talents and abilities of our students. Through Spectrum, we intend to promote confidence and creative thinking within the school children, so that they become responsible, independent and life long learners. The appreciation of parents is still pouring in. The efforts of the students are definitely praiseworthy.

An event of great dimension cannot happen overnight. The wheels start rolling months in advance. It requires meticulous planning and execution and an eye for details.

On behalf of the Management of Advanced Academy, we take this opportunity to extend our sincere thanks to all the parents for their continuous support and patience during the Annual Function. We are fortunate to have excellent team of teachers and students who have put in their best efforts and made the event a grand success.

Happy reading.
